115,672 ILLUSTRATED JUVENILE BOOKS To the Editor of The Tribune. Sin: Not many days ago you gave up much of your valuable space to a visidication of Dr. C. C. Schieferdecker from accusations unjustly brought against him last Summer. He was grateful to you for publishing the truth, exclaiming, "Too late to do me any good, for I am going fast. This persecution has taken were the years of my life, but at least I have JUST PUBLISHED. taken away five years of my life, but at least I have en heard." The kind-hearted, generous old man lay THE LAW OF INJUNCTIONS.

BY PRANCIS HILLIARD.

Author of "The Law of Torts," The Law of New Trials," "The Law of Co-tracts," etc.

That the work may continue to deserve the approbation as well as the favor with which the previous carious have here recrited by the previous, and that it may fully keep pace with the Law, it has been, in fession, and that it may fully keep pace with the Law, it has been, in fession, and that it may fully pares being added, and in some portions rewritten, about 100 pares being added, and a very large number of cases, pericalarly the most recent, not merely cited but the points which they decide briefly stated.

KAY & BROTHER, Law Papilishers.

17 and 19 South Sixthest. Pailade phia. down and died-died because he no longer cared to live Is honor had been impugued and he had not spirit nough to fight his old maladies. To-day, his friends and ents have looked their last upon their benefactor, so remains have been taken to Baltimore, there to be buried with Masonie honors by the Templars. And now, some of us who are grateful and know that Dr. Schleferdecker's dearest wish was publish the manuscript work containing conclusions deduced from 40 years' practice of MARGARET J. McDONALD's hydropathy, think that the best way to carry out this wish is to appeal to Dr. Schleferdecker's old patients, hundreds of whom are scattered over the country. With subscriptions for 1,000 copies or less, a can easily be obtained, and as the book need not cost re than $3, persons in moderate circumstances will be able to contribute their mite to the good work. Already the Hon. John Bigelow, Miss Charlotte Cushman, Mrs. Aune Lynch Botts, and other eminent men and women, have subscribed for many copies, and I am sure that the publicity given to the matter by the insertion of this note in THE TRIBUNE will lead to favorable results. All that is asked of old stients or of persons interested in hydropathy is to and his or her name to Dr. Zollnowski, No. 463 West enty-first-st., stating the number of copies to be sub eribed for. Dr. Zollnowski was Dr. Schieferdecker's partner and will be his successor. The Rev. Mr. Shackelford to whom Dr. Schleferdecker submitted his manuscript

There would be something inappropriate in "Bawis from Fairf-inud;" "Shrieks" or "Yelis" would be whelly out of the question; there is a sulky sound about "Mutterings," and "Howls" would be extremely objectionable. So, upon the whole, I prefer "Whisper-ings." And, indeed, the title is all the more appropriate, because it is table tone of voice that the little elves generally impart information to those whom they honor with their confidence.—[Extract from Preface. SATURDAY, Dec. 12-P. M. The general trade of the city has not improved during the week past, though there has been some little activity in the dry goods and fancy goods lines so far as it relates to holiday merchandise or articles suitable for presents. The cotton market is dull, with declining prices, increasing receipts, and decreasing exports. The produce trade is dull, with unsettled and rather drooping prices. The extraordinarily large stocks of breadstuffs on hand, with the moderate export demand, coupled with the belief that England has been measura-bly supplied with grain imported from the Continent, in addition to her own good crops. does not hold out the prospect of a very hopeful Winter's business for our Western railroads so far as the grain carrying traffic is concerned. The events of the week in financial circles have not been very remarkable. The recommendations of the President and Secretary of the Treasury upon the matter of a return to specie payments have been considerably discussed and are generally regarded with favor so far as the object sought to be obtained is concerned. As to the proper mode of reaching specie payments there seems so be great diversity of opinion, and the general feeling or belief of the street is that Congress will do nothing of a practical character at this session in the way of enforcing the President's recommendations. Had President Grant on taking the Executive Chair in 1809 taken as strong a position in favor of specie resumption as that contained in his recent message and resolutely adhered to it, he would probably have carried his party right along in that direction, and the result would have been that we should have long since resumed and most likely have escaped a panie or general revulsion in business. But he did not do so then, and he unfortunately stands upon no such vantage ground now. The money market has been easy for call loans most of the week at 3 to 4 per cent, while exceptional business has been done both above and below those figures. Discounts are slightly firmer. The bank statement was surprise to many, in that the falling off in reserves was so small, especially in specie, in face of the exports of that article of merchandise; but they should remember that the United States Treasury put out during the week about $4,000,000 gold in the form of gold sales, interest, and redemption of 5-20 bonds, and the payments in the Treasury in the form of duties was small. The gold speculation has for the present apparently run its course, and the quotation at the close to-night was the same as that of last Saturday, the price in the mean time having been up to 1112 and down to 1104.

any very wide changes, comparing the closing prices

most active stock was Pacific Mail, which 231,000 shares were sold at prices 30}, or 2} below that of last Saturday. The recent 304, or 22 below that of last Saturday, change in the Board of Directors in this Company change in the Board of Directors in this Company and the investigation going forward at Was concerning the manner of obtaining the subsidy for the China mail service, have no doubt had much to do with the eccentric course of the stock. Next in point of activity to Pacific Mail was North-Western Common, which declined from 463 to 453, advanced to 47%, and finally closed at 47; 148,000 shares of this stock were sold during the week, and about un equal amount of Lake Shore, which declined from 80; to 79], advanced to 80], and finally went back | per cent to 808, which was the closing price a week ago. Western Union Telegraph was dealt in to the extent of 128,000 shares, falling off from 824 to 814, subsequently advancing to 854, and finally closing at 82—4 below last Saturday's price. Erie was active to the extent of 95,000 shares, sold at the extremes of 26 and 28, and closed at 271, which is an advance of 1 for the week Wabash was fairly active and lower, showing at the close a decline of 1; per cent from the highest quotation of the week. Union Pacific has been quiet and steady, showing a decline of I since last Saturday. Ohio and Mississippi, in which a fair business has been dene, closed I lower, and St. Paul 1. The investment stocks have generally exhibted strength, Delaware, Lackawanna and Western improving I per cent; Panama, which seems not to have been affected by the course of Paicfie Mail, 1; New-Jersey Central, 11; New-York Central, 1, and Michigan Central, 3 per cent. The railway stocks opened on the whole a little lower than they closed last night, and then improved, ruling steady thenceforward all the way to the close, the variations being very narrow, and the dullness particularly in afternoon dealings, very intense, if dull can ever be intense. The larger dealings were in Erie, Pacific Mail, Western Union Telegraph, Ohios, North-Western, Union Pacific, Wabash, and Lake Shore. The general market closed steady. on call on ordinary Stock Exchange collaterat, and notes for redemption. The Internal Revenue re-ceipts to-day amounted to $390,000, a total for the present month to date of $3,840,000. The Treasurernow holds $385,500,000 in bonds to secure National bank circulation and $16,350,000 to secure public deposits. The National bank circulation outstanding is as fol-lows: Legal tenders. $347,170,000: gold notes, $2,230,000; total. $340,400,000. The bank statement for the week ended to-day shows a decrease in all the items. The legal tenders are down nearly $750,000, representing the outflow of the interior, which we have already noted as diminishing. It is which we have already noted as diminishing. It is quite likely the present statement is made on rising
